Discoveries

Church Bad Mitterndorf

The parish church of Bad Mitterndorf is one of the oldest places of worship in the Ausseerland Salzkammergut. Presumably built on a pre-Christian place of worship, it combines historical architecture with a long religious tradition and is an important landmark of the region. Particularly impressive is its Gothic building core, which has been extended and redesigned several times over the centuries.

Redender Stein Mountain

If you take a break at the "Talking Stone", then known as the "Reddening Stone", you will sometimes hear strange noises. The wind roaring through the rock creates strange noises. Wrap up your senses and hike to this sight in the Tote Gebirge and then enjoy a culinary treat in the Albert Appelhaus!
